

Artivism: Can art truly challenge the status quo, inspire collective action and drive positive changes in society?

13:00-13:05

Welcome address

Mr. Krishna Luchoomun, president pARTage.

13:05-13:15

Dr. Vandita Ladkoo, Chairperson

13:15- 13:25

Art: from challenges, status quo to collective actions; 21st century commentary.”

Author: Ken Jason Chung How Hing, Mauritius

13:25-13:35

Developing Conscious Connection Through Creativity.

Author: Rebecca Amanda D’Souza, Mauritius

13:35-13:45

What can the visual artist do to respond to current ecological issues, create a new sustainable artistic model that reduces social injustices

Author: Christiane Fath – La Reunion/France

13:45-14:00

Q and A

ARTIVISM

Scan the QR Code
to access our page.

14:00-14:10

Circular Design – Affective Value in Repurposing Waste Materials

Authors: Dr Mahendra Gooroochurn and Nooreen Lallmamode - Mauritius

14:10-14:20

Tiny Steps Make Big Strides.

Author: Valerie Medard-Ramchurn - Mauritius

14:20-14:30

"Towards Sustainable Printmaking: A Non-Toxic Approach in the Mauritian Context"

Authors: Arvind Ombika/ Veemanda Curpen – Mauritius

14:30-14:40

The Orange Art Project, enabling growth in social interactions.

Author: Jill Trappler – South Africa

14:40-15:00

Material v/s Form

Author: Todd Lanier Lester– USA/Brazil

15:00-15:15

Q & A

15:15-15:45

Refreshments.

All guests are requested to be seated by 12:55

WOLMAR SUPERMARKET

